Motorcyclist medevacked to Queens following traffic crash

LIHUE – A motorcyclist was medevacked to Queen's Medical Center following a traffic crash in Līhu'e Saturday afternoon.

The accident occurred on Kūhiō Highway at approximately 2:36 p.m. when the southbound motorcyclist crashed into a northbound SUV that was turning left into the Līhu'e McDonald's. Traffic was at stop when the motorcyclist drove between the two southbound lanes and crashed into the SUV.

The motorcyclist, a 25-year-old Kōloa man, sustained multiple injuries. He was not wearing a helmet.

The driver of the SUV and her passenger were not injured.

Following the crash, the northbound traffic was diverted to Hardy Street and the southbound traffic was re-directed to the northbound lane.

The highway was completely reopened at 5:45 p.m.
